

Accommodations at the University of British Columbia

Vancouver, on the Pacific Coast of Canada is a very popular tourist destination, especially for those interested in the outdoors and natural beauty. The University of British Columbia is a world-class institution regularly ranked in the top 30 of world universities. The UBC campus is a beautiful village unto itself located on the western tip of Point Grey. It is surrounded by the forests of Pacific Spirit Park, the shores of the Fraser River, the beaches of Burrard Inlet, and boasts spectacular views of the city, mountains and ocean. All necessary amenities (restaurants, groceries, pharmacies, shops, banks, cafes) can be found within easy walking distance. There is also direct ground transportation to downtown or the airport (YVR) via public transit, uber, and taxi.

Hotels and other accommodations, particularly in the summer in Vancouver, can be expensive and sometimes hard to book. We have been fortunate to pre-book a block of rooms on campus at affordable rates. These accommodations range from hotel-style rooms frequently booked for conferences and academic visitors to budget rooms and shared units in student residences.

IIRRM is pleased to offer the following accommodations to conference attendees at discounted rates. We encourage attendees to book early. If we run out we can book additional rooms, if available, but we cannot guarantee availability and price. The LAST day to book a room with our block is July 1 2024.

Rates below are per night per room excluding tax, which in BC is 13%. Currency changes are approximate. We also have a limited number of two-bedroom units available. If you would like to be paired with a roommate let us know by emailing anne@iirm.org.
