What is Restorative Reproductive Medicine (RRM)?

RRM is a medical discipline focused on identifying and treating the root cause of reproductive problems with an aim to restore and optimize the patient's health. Instead of suppressing or bypassing the problem, RRM clinicians work collaboratively with patients, using fertility or cycle charting that allows for precisely timed testing and medications.

The field of RRM is becoming increasingly credited for its contributions and publications, not only as a proven and effective option for fertility treatment but to women's health in general.

IIRRM

What is the International Institute for Restorative Reproductive Medicine (IIRRM)?

The only international institute uniting RRM providers & researchers around the globe, who share a common belief that patients deserve scientifically-based, well-researched, reproductive health care services that cooperate with, and restore, reproductive function. IIRRM is a registered international Charitable Incorporated Organization (CIO) and Institute based out of London, UK.

What is the International Clinical & Scientific Congress for Restorative Reproductive Medicine (ICSC 4 RRM)?

ICSC 4 RRM is a two-day congress where medical professionals and students gather to stay current with the latest published findings and clinical trends in restorative reproductive medicine.

Two days of intense pre-conference coursework is offered along three streams in 2024, helping those practicing stay up to date in the field and providing opportunity to begin training for clinicians new to RRM.

What is the Femtech & Fertility Restoration Exposition (FFRExpo)

Hosted concurrently with the Congress, FFRExpo connects femtech and reproductive health-focused companies with the medical professionals who are keen to see new products and services on the market.

Need concentrated access to a group of femtech friendly RRM clinicians, who recommend brands like yours to their patients? This is your chance to talk to them all at once, at the lowest cost possible.
